With Schulte behind one team and Brewer urging the other eleven on, about thirty football Tigers went through their second scrimmage of the season on Rollins Field yesterday afternoon. The regulars, if Schulte's team could be called that, made the only score of the twenty-five minutes melee, counting two points, when Hamilton passed the ball over Jimmy Simpson's head on an attempted punt out of danger.

Stankowski gets away so well at quarter that he simply can't be kept off the team. Rutledge has lots of pep and a good head, but somehow does not seem to show the football genius necessary to win him a place. However, his willingness to work will probably get him results before November 30.

Giltner will take care of one end position while the other is an open fight between Bass, Slusher and Wilder. Bass is good both at opening holes and on defensive work while Slusher's strongest point is his punting ability. Wilder shows well at times, one of these times being yesterday when he stopped everything in his direction, while at other times he puts up an indifferent exhibition.

While the line is not definitely decided upon, the five positions will probably be taken care of by six or seven men that can be named now. Hamilton can hardly be kept out of the line-up despite the fact that Captain Lansing is holding down the position at the center of the line. Big Bill Muir, Preston, McAnaw, Van Dyne and Groves, will probably take care of the line, although two or three other men may break into this group of veterans. If Groves works in behind the line and that seems to be the only place he wants to work, it will leave more of an opening for the new men. Schulte wants Snooze in the backfield to furnish some badly needed weight and driving power, but whether the star tackle can be trained to the finer points of backfield playing is another question.

Two facts stand out from the first two nights' scrimmages, one that the Tigers are in excellent condition for so early in the season, the other that the Tiger 1916 backfield is a very uncertain proposition. Viner, a backfield man, was hurt slightly yesterday but will be back as good as ever next week. A few sore spots and charley horses are the only other bad effects of the early scrimmages.

The backfield is going to cause the coaches considerable trouble. McMillan has been the only consistent ground-gainer thus far and part of his good work undoubtedly is due to superior interference and weak defense. However the 1916 baseball captain has shown some ability at picking holes and is fast on his feet. His work has easily been the feature of the last two days' practice.

Pittam's work Friday night was a disappointment while White has shown little of his real ability, especially in forming interference. Rider, the other veteran backfielder, got away for a nice run against the scrubs yesterday but has not had much chance to show his wares.

Last Year's Freshmen Are Showing the Regulars Up in "Pep."

Of the new men Marshall has shown up strong. He is not any too heavy for a back but furnishes excellent interference as well as some ability at advancing the ball. His defensive work shows him at his best. Jimmy Simpson is another freshman graduate to how up in the backfield. He can punt, and is fast, but light, for Varsity material. Collins, a brother of the famous Clint, may give some of the older men a fight for a back position.

Jayhawkers Begin Secret Practice Early

The Jayhawkers started secret practice Thursday afternoon in preparation for their first game next Saturday when they will play the Kansas Normals. Neilson, one of the ends of the 1915 Kansas team, reported for practice Wednesday. Coach Oleott practiced the freshmen against the Varsity for a few minutes Tuesday afternoon and it is said that the freshmen held their own with the regulars. When the veterans get in shape it will be a different story for the new men. The Kansas will play two of the teams on Missouri's schedule this fall. They are the Kansas Aggies and the Oklahoma Sooners. These games will afford some basis of comparison between the two rivals for the annual Thanksgiving Day game.

Aha! The "Indian" Has A Surprise in the Old Wigwam.

Schulte is putting in most of his time on the backfield these days, laying the stress on forming interference and getting the plays off in good shape. Only once yesterday did he attempt any open play and that time a short pass to Stankowski over the center of the line went true. Whether the coach intends to open up a little more later is another of those things he isn't telling anyone.

Only Five Veterans Back At Oklahoma This Year.

Only five of Oklahoma's seventeen letter men are back for the football squad this fall. Among the twelve veterans lost to the Sooners are Geyer, who did the forward-passing, the rest of the backfield and line men. Only Fields and Captain Montgomery, the regular ends, are left from the famous 1915 team which won from Missouri, Kansas and Texas. Johnson, who played quarter against the Tigers because the regular keystone man was ineligible according to Missouri Valley rules, is another letter man back, while Meyer, scrub quarter, and McCain, substitute halfback, are the others of the five returning.

Coach Owens will have to build an entire new team with his wonderfully fast ends and the substitute backs as a nucleus. He has a most promising bunch of freshmen graduates, however, and with their experience with the open game should be able to develop another of his fast, spectacular elevens. The Sooners will be played at Norman on the Tigers' first trip.
